

Karen Website Resources

Websites with resources and information on their beliefs, culture, language, and history

American Baptist Historical Society Judson 200 Site A special site set up to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the arrival of the Judson's to Burma in 1813.	http://judson200.org/
Bible Society of Myanmar website has online versions of the Bible in a variety of languages found throughout Burma. Of particular interest may be the various Chin, Kachin and Karen languages in a parallel arrangement with English. The lower link at right, will take you directly to the parallel Burmese/English version.	http://www.myanmarbible.com/documents/24.html www.myanmarbible.com/bible/search/parallel.php
Burmese/Karen Medical Glossary website where a glossary of over 2400 English words and definitions (as well as reference pages for frequently-used terms) translated to Burmese and Karen can be purchased for $38 dollars.	https://xculture.org/store/?slug=product_info.php&products_id=80
Cetana Educational Foundation website shows a trilingual English-Burmese-Karen illustrated dictionary. A nice feature is that it includes the use of a defined word in a sentence.	www.cetana.org/Cetna_Educational_Foundation/Dictionary.html
Drum Publication Group website has many Karen language materials including Karen script fonts for computers and an online English to a Karen dictionary. Clicking on this additional link takes you to their latest Karen-to-English and English-to-Karen dictionaries published by the Drum Publication Group.	www.drumpublications.org/index.html
Free Burma Rangers and Christians Concerned for Burma websites are related Christian organizations that support operations inside Burma among the Internally Displaced People (IDPs). They can give first hand accounts of active hotspots and also organize the annual Day of Prayer for Burma.	www.freeburmarangers.org and www.prayforburma.org

Hill Light Theological Seminary website is about a Thailand seminary located in Huay Nam Khum (Klee Thoo Klo Village) operating under the Klee Thoo Klo Karen Baptist Church (TKBC). It is a seminary which started four years ago, with the first group of students graduating during the 2011-2012 academic year.	www.hilllight.org
Karen Baptist Theological Seminary website, located near Yangon, Myanmar.	www.kbts.info/index.html
Karen Connection an excellent website with practical resources, Bible Study plans, materials for pastors, historical information on the Karen, and so on.	www.karenconnection.org
Karen Human Rights Group website has lots of current news and updates as well as good historical and background information.	www.khrg.org
Karen News General news about current events among the Karen. Related to the popular Karen Language Kwaekalu web site (www.kwekalu.net).	karennews.org
Mae La Refugee Camp Bible School & College headed by Dr. Simon Htoo	https://sites.google.com/site/kkbbbsc
Peace Way Foundation website offers a weekly summary of Burma-related news which can be received by e-mail, or recent offerings can be viewed on their website.	www.burmaissues.org
Project Gutenberg Australia website provides information about the Karen, including a Sgaw Karen Grammar Guide, a book "The Karen People of Burma", a dictionary for the Sgau Karen language, a manual for the Pwo Karen dialect, another book entitled "The Karen Village Hut", etc.	http://gutenberg.net.au/ Search "Karen"

Karen Baptist Convention website is about the Myanmar Karen Baptist Convention, the parent convention of the Karen Baptist Churches in the refugee camps in Thailand and around the world. It has information about the Karen background and history, their structure, and activities.	http://kbcm1913.org/index.php
Refugee Council USA website provides a lot of good background information on refugees and the US government's refugee resettlement program.	www.rcusa.org
Refuge Health Information Network website has information about health benefits and treatment for Burma refugees in Burmese, Chin, Karen and other languages.	www.rhin.org
The Border Consortium is the organization that feeds, clothes and houses all the refugees in the camps along the Thai/Burma border. They have also gathered data and published several well respected reports on the situation of IDPs. Their 6 month reports offer a good summary of the history of the conflict and up to date analysis of the current situation.	http://theborderconsortium.org/
U.S. Committee for Refugees and Immigrants - Healthy Living Toolkit his website has brochures in the Burmese, Karen and other languages about Communicable Diseases, Domestic Violence, Health Care, Hygiene, Maternal and Child Health, Nutrition Related Diseases, Respiratory Diseases, and Women's Health.	www.refugees.org/resources/for-refugees--immigrants/health/healthy-living-toolkit/