

Economic Impact of Immigrants & Refugees on Minnesota's Economy

STATE AND LOCAL TAX CONTRIBUTIONS OF SELECTED MINNESOTA POPULATIONS, 2013

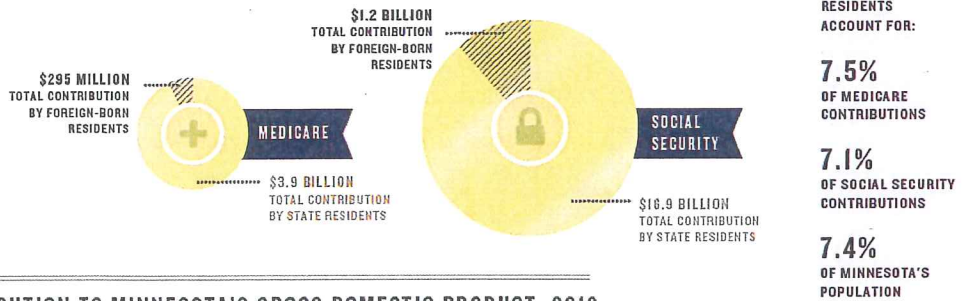

“Immigrants and refugee help fund public services around the state through over $1.2 Billion in state and local taxes from wage and earnings contributions”

PURCHASING POWER OF SELECT POPULATIONS IN MINNESOTA, 2013

$7.7 BILLION IS THE PURCHASING POWER OF FOREIGN-BORN RESIDENTS

TOTAL PURCHASING POWER OF RESIDENTS:
$110.8 BILLION

MEDICARE AND SOCIAL SECURITY CONTRIBUTIONS OF FOREIGN-BORN RESIDENTS, 2013

FOREIGN-BORN RESIDENT'S CONTRIBUTION TO MINNESOTA'S GROSS DOMESTIC PRODUCT, 2012

REVENUE AND EMPLOYEES OF MINNESOTA FORTUNE 500 FIRMS FOUNDED BY IMMIGRANTS OR THEIR CHILDREN

 Estimates should be taken as being within potentially large confidence intervals. Calculations are based on data from 2013 American Community Survey and tax payments on average tax contributions in Minnesota. Data does not come from tax statements. Refugees and other foreign-born immigrants encompass a broad variation in income levels.

*Revenue in the last 12 months